REDEMPTORIST COMMUNICATIONS IRELAND

HIGH QUALITY RELIGIOUS CARDS DESIGNED AND PRODUCED ENTIRELY IN IRELAND

St Alphonsus De Ligouri, Doctor of the Church and founder of the Redemptorists, believed that the good news of the Gospel should be proclaimed to everyone, especially those on the margins of society. He insisted that Redemptorists preach in simple, everyday language, using all available means to convey the love of God.

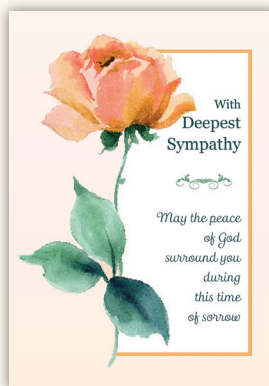

As well as being an artist and composer of religious music, Alphonsus practised what he called the 'apostolate of the pen.' He wrote 111 books, ranging from academic textbooks and manuals to works of popular devotion.

The Irish Redemptorists have been publishing religious literature since 1936. During that time, our work has diversified into monthly publications, sacramental and children's literature, Mass leaflets, liturgical aids and religious cards – all in response to Alphonsus' mandate to proclaim the Gospel in whatever way we can by whatever means we can.

In keeping with our Redemptorist Communications' mission to hand on the faith, this catalogue of religious cards, with verse and scripture, seeks to bring a touch of God's loving caress into people's lives.

Card 1: A wife who loses a husband is called a widow. A husband who loses his wife is called a widower. A child who loses his parents is called an orphan. There is no word for a parent who loses a child. That's how awful the loss is. Jay Hengelerman, an Orphan's Tale

Card 2: MASS OF THE ANGELS. Then the child opened its eyes, and looked up into the angel's beautiful face, which beamed with happiness, and at the same moment they were in heaven, where joy and bliss reigned. The child reached upward like the other angel, and they flew about together, hand in hand. Hans Christian Andersen

Card 3: My Little Angel. You've just walked me ahead of me And I've got to understand. You would promise the most you could And let go of these hands. I try and open the heart I can But I'm missing you so much If I could only see you And now more feel your truth. Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me Don't worry I'll be fine. But now and then I wonder I feel Your hand slip away from mine. God Takes them to His Loving Home. God also gets getting tired, a dear soul sent to be. He wepted down to his loving arms and embraced "Come with me." He suffered much in silence, his spirit did not bend. He faced his pain with courage, with love and faith. He tried to hold to play with us but his fight was not in vain, God took him to His loving home and freed him from his pain. Remembering you in The Mass of the Angels. Pullen girls
